

Skiworld launch the Double Ski-All-In Discount promotion for selected catered chalets during limited time, saving up to £560 per person!

During the 2018/19 season, 53% of all Skiworld's customers booked a Ski-All-In package.

What extra does the Ski-All-In package include?

In addition to accommodation, return flights, transfers and chalet board; the Ski-All-In package includes the lift pass and ski hire (or ski carriage).

Why do customers book Skiworld's Ski-All-In package?

- Significant savings – Up to £560 per person with the Double Ski-All-In Discount
- No hidden costs – Budget more effectively
- Locked-in exchange rates – If exchange rate changes, skiers won't have to pay more
- Convenience – Lift pass ready at the accommodation on arrival
- Flexibility – Choose the lift pass and ski hire that suits

Double Ski-All-In Discount

With the double ski-all-in discount, all-inclusive ski holidays start at £726 per person! The saving of up to £560 per person is the equivalent of a free lift pass and ski hire. An unbeatable price and unmissable offer. This discount is only available on selected chalets and ends 15th July, so customers must book early to get the best properties whilst they are available.

Stay in Chalet Yves in Les Arcs for 7 nights at £726 per person (saving £360pp), departing on 8th February 2020. This price includes accommodation, return flights, transfers, 6 days chalet board, lift pass and ski hire (or carriage).

Top Tip for Groups

If customers are looking to book a group ski holiday, Skiworld's double group discount of £100 off per person (if you book the entire chalet) is valid until 28th June 2019. This is combinable with the double ski-all-in discount, so skiers can save a massive £660 per person if the booking is made within the next week!

For example, book the whole of Chalet Valluga in St Anton, departing on 28th March 2020 for a group of six people for £1,241 per person. Save £610 per person with the double group discount and double ski-all-in discount.
