

What's new with Skiworld for 2020/21 Season?

Skiworld have introduced a few new elements to their 20/21 programme including changes to the loyalty scheme and a new ski destination, as well as keeping some of the most popular promotions.

Loyalty Scheme

To reward their returning guests, Skiworld has introduced a new loyalty scheme, where customers can get up to £100pp off. If customers book within 4 weeks of their return, they receive £100pp off their next booking. If they book within 10 weeks of their return, they get £50pp off and lastly, if customers book after the 10 weeks, they will get £35pp off their next booking.

New Canadian Resort

Skiworld has introduced a new resort, Tremblant, which is voted as number one ski resort in Eastern North America. Located in Quebec - the French speaking province of Canada - skiers can enjoy the French culture, which adds to the overall charm of the resort.

The Canadian resort is only a short journey away in comparison to other Canadian resorts. The flight is 6 hours to Montreal and then a transfer of under 2 hours from Montreal to Tremblant. Skiers can also enjoy ski-in/ski-out convenience of the purpose built resort.

With the summit sitting at 875 metres (2,871 feet), skiers can enjoy a stunning view of the Laurentians. The ski area covers 755 acres, with 102 ski trails for beginners and experts across four distinct slopes. There are also 3 snow parks for freestyle skiers, with access to 60 modules in 3 different sectors of the mountain.

If Tremblant is a ski destination you would like to visit, here are a few properties Skiworld feature:
