

Skiworld Introduce Italy to their Programme

Feedback from Skiworld customers, who travelled in previous seasons, has highlighted that Italy is the most sought-after ski holiday destination not currently offered by the company. Taking this into consideration, Skiworld has decided to add a hand-picked selection of self-catered apartments and hotels to their portfolio, located in six Italian resorts across two regions – the Italian Alps and the Dolomites. Wherever you choose, you'll find a recurrence of jaw dropping scenery, incredible dining on and off the mountain and skiing to rival anywhere else in the world.

When booking an Italian ski holiday with Skiworld, customers will get their accommodation, return scheduled British Airways flights and their own transfers to their accommodation. The whole package will be tailor-made by Skiworld experts to meet the requirements of each customer.

To celebrate the launch of Italy, Skiworld is offering £50 off per person if they book an Italian ski holiday before 30th June 2019. To get this discount, call to book and quote promo code “ITALY50”.
